

Marty Jenkins moved to a new town with his parents when his dad's job ended in St. Louis. He hated the thought of going to a new school and making new friends in the small community of Etherton. Little did he know that his life would change once he settled into the small town after four hoodlums set out to cause him problems. The only bright spot for Marty was meeting Mary Beth, a girl in his class at school. What will happen when the four young thugs want to start trouble? Will Marty handle the situation and come out ahead?
